—CHAPTER 1—

INTRODUCTION: ----- 14

Quality Virtue Often Deviates From Popular Judgement

“Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will” (Romans 12:2).

GIVING: ----- 20

The Worth Of Giving Is Not On The “Quantity” But On The “Quality”

UNDESERVED LOVE: ----- 54

The Real Measure And Meaning Of True Love

Quality love is not that offered to people who reciprocate the love. It is however love offered to those who don't deserve it. The more we love the "unlovable", the higher the quality of love.

THE VIRTUE OF WEAKNESS: ----- 179

Strength For Weaknesses Or Weakness For Strength?

We have no business telling others our success if we cannot equally tell them of our failures. Weakness is the foundation upon which a virtuous strength is built. Strength without weakness breeds a non-virtuous weakness called pride.
